

6516208339.txt

As a citizen who is paying for service with XM Radio I demand the right to get the services they provide. The services they provide reflect the needs and wants of their listeners.
Broadcast radio does not meet our needs.

Law should not allow for protection of the dying industry that Broadcast radio has become. We do not protect other industries and we should not waste time or effort on these concerns. When Americans pay for the XM service we are "voting" for what we want.